One Foot in Yesterday

Yesterday my child was here, on this planet, alive. Yesterday life looked promising. Yesterday morning I woke up looking forward to the day. Today I awake peacefully and then I remember my child is dead, and I cannot breathe. I am jolted from head to toe. My child has been dead for a day. I wonder what my child was thinking in the last moments. I remember all the wonderful times. I remember the joy. I think of my child's life and how his life changed me forever. I remember the last time I saw my child. I remember the last goodbye. I sob and breathe.

I am lost for days. Final arrangements are made. The platitudes float past me—these words have no meaning. A memorial service for my child. People with sad faces. Hugs, words, tears, head shaking. I can see it in their eyes—they are thankful it isn't their child. They are uncomfortable. Time heals, they say. There's a plan, there's a reason. I cannot respond. They understand. No, they don't. My child is dead. This is not my parent, my husband, my sibling. This is my child. My child was supposed to outlive me. I thank them for their good intentions. I have no interest in their words. A few friends say nothing. This is the better choice, the wiser action. Be there, be there for me. Understand my unspoken words. See my broken heart. Understand. Listen to my story, a story of my child. Remember his life, remember his death.

Welcome

We extend a warm welcome to those who attended their first TCF meeting last month.

We deeply regret the circumstances that brought you to our TCF Chapter. The Compassionate Friends is a mutual assistance, not-for-profit, self-help organization that offers support and understanding to families who have experienced the death of a child. You are cordially invited to attend our monthly meeting (held the third Monday of the month). The meeting is open to everyone and free of charge. You are free to talk, cry or to sit in silence; we respect the individuality of mourning. Comments shared in the meetings remain confidential.

Our chapter is operated entirely by volunteers dedicated to furthering the work of TCF. Your voluntary, tax deductible donations honor your loved one(s) in a meaningful way by enabling us to print and mail this newsletter and meet other expenses involved in reaching out to other grieving families (100% of funds are used for this outreach). Donations, along with the name of the person being honored, may be sent to:

The Compassionate Friends of Tyler
P.O. Box 9714
Tyler, Texas 75711

To Our New Members

Coming to your first meeting is the hardest thing to do. But, you have nothing to lose and much to gain. Try not to judge your first meeting as to whether or not TCF will work for you. The second, third or fourth meeting might be the time you will find the right person—or just the right words spoken that will help you in your grief work.

To Our Old Members

We need your encouragement and support. You are the string that ties our group together and the glue that makes it stick. Each meeting we have new parents. Think back—what would it have been like for you if there had not been any "oldies" to welcome you, share your grief and encourage you? It was from them you heard, "Your pain will not always be this bad; it really does get softer."

Remembering Our Kids

No matter the age, they'll always be our 'kids!' And to remember them in a special, whimsical way, we are offering to include your child's photo with a symbol of something that represents them—something they loved—for a donation to TCF of Tyler in the amount of $25. Just send a check to P.O. Box 9714, Tyler, TX 75711, or visit us online at tylertcf.org. Please designate where you'd like the donation to be used and tell us what kind of art would represent your child, eg: football, guitar, hunting, computers, animals, etc.

Butterfly Release

Butterflies will be released in memory of all our children at the 2012 Compassionate Friends Butterfly Release set for Saturday, May 19, 2012 at 1:00 p.m. The setting for this uplifting and peaceful event will be the First Baptist Church South Campus, 17002 Highway 69 South in Tyler.

Live butterflies are for sale for $10 each and must be reserved in plenty of time for ordering. Please send your check and reservation information to TCF at P.O. Box 9714, Tyler, Texas 75711. Reserved butterflies will be picked up for release the day of the event.

Colorful solid-painted wooden butterflies will be sold for $20 each at the Butterfly Release; we are not taking special orders for personalized butterflies this year.

Silent auction items are being collected. If something catches your eye that you think those attending would enjoy bidding on, please consider donating. For donation information, please contact Cheri Zucca at cheriz708@yahoo.com.

Proceeds from the Butterfly Release will again be used for outreach efforts and materials.

The Butterfly Release begins at 1 p.m. that Saturday but volunteers are needed and welcomed for either set-up work the Friday evening before, or beginning at 8 a.m. Saturday the day of the release. Please contact us at 903-258-2547 if you want to volunteer.

Enjoying refreshments and visiting with TCF friends and family after the butterflies are released is a special part of the day. If you would like to donate any finger food—cookies, chips/dips, small sandwiches, pickles, olives, cheese cubes, fruit chunks or veggies—any of your special favorites—please contact Carol Thompson at 903-539-0458! Cake will be served and bottled iced water will be available.

We look forward to seeing old friends and meeting new ones at the Butterfly Release! Your presence means everything to this very special event!

Remember When

Remember when:

- you cried at the mention of her name
- you could not bear to look at her picture
- watching home movies of too heart-wrenching to even consider
- everything you saw reminded you of her....and it hurt so bad
- you dreaded going to sleep for fear of dreaming of her
- you dreaded waking up
- you dreaded-----life
- you wanted to go where she was

How about now?

- you can talk about her without crying
- you love to meet anyone who remembers her
- you love to hear them say her name
- you can laugh at the funny things she said
- you have picture albums of her, and you love to share them
- you love watching those movies [they are tears of joy]
- you love to dream of her
- you pray to dream of her
- you even went through her hope chest—and lived to tell about it

There is no time limit on grief. You have your way, and I have mine. I can truly say after all these years, I am better. And I feel confident in telling you, "You will get better, too." My best advice as a "seasoned griever": don't try to do it alone. Let other bereaved parents help you. It helps you, and it helps them. You will find unbelievable compassion among those who have been through what you are going through. They can help, and in time, so can you.

Cherish the days between "remember when" and "how about now." Make a list similar to mine. You have come much further than you think.

God bless you.

Acceptance

by Gwen Flowers

It isn't letting go. It's going on.
 It isn't only shadows, and it isn't only dawn.
 It isn't getting through it, it's letting it come through me.
 Not living in the darkness, though the darkness I can see.
 It's living with the sorrow but finding memories sweet.
 It's knowing that it takes both sides to make it all complete.
 It's soaking up the sunshine along with the rain.
 It's learning to let laughter live side by side with pain.
 It's knowing that the years won't change a love that's real.
 Or take away the joy you brought, or the sorrow that I feel.
 It's knowing tears and laughter can live on the same face.
 And your impression in my heart can never be erased.

You Think

You think it won't happen to you, but it does.
 You think your life could never be this way, but it is.
 You think you should have recognized that he was dying, but you didn't.
 You think your grief is so huge that you'll forget to breathe, but you don't.
 You think the sun will forget to come up, but it doesn't.
 You think the tears will stop coming, but they don't.
 You think you can't handle the pain, but you do.
 You think you'll lose hope, but you don't.
 You think you'll never be happy again, but you will.
 You think you'll be alone forever, but you won't.
 You think that you'll never laugh again, but you do.
 You think you can't live without them, but you learn how.

Angelia K., TCF Chapter, Seattle, King County

To My Sister

You touched us all, you loved us all,
 Forever giving, forever caring,
 Forever forgiving.
 Never wanting in return.
 Blessed are those who shared your life.
 Rich are those who carry your memories.
 Please rest now; your chores we will finish.
 'Til we meet again...

Cindy Keltz ~ Arlington Heights, IL

Spring Thaws The Wounded Heart

Alice J. Wisler

Inspired by the life of Daniel Paul Wisler
8-25-92 ~ 2-2-97

That first spring
 came too soon
 why did daffodils
 show sunny faces
 around the grave stone
 why did warm breezes blow
 clouds away
 my world, a gray dismal
 had no room
 for this season.
 Now years later
 the blossoms of love,
 hope and healing
 have broken through grounds of utter despair
 warmed by memories of you
 I join the daffodils bringing my own smile.

When I Must Leave You

by Helen Steiner Rice

When I must leave you
 For a little while—
 Please do not grieve
 And shed wild tears
 And hug your sorrow to you
 Through the years,

But start out bravely
 With a gallant smile;
 And for my sake
 And for my name
 Live on and do
 All things the same,

Feed not your loneliness
 On empty days,
 But fill each waking hour
 In useful ways,

Reach out your hand
 In comfort and in cheer
 And I in turn will comfort you
 And hold you near;

And never, never
 Be afraid to die
 For I am waiting for you in the sky!
